

Shri Gagan Agarwal
(President)

Mr. Gagan Agarwal (Aged 52 years) has done Engineering (Mechanical), M. Tech (Industrial Engg) and MBA from CT Bauer College of Management, University of Houston, USA. Mr. Gagan Agarwal (Aged) has about 25+ years' experience in the field of Hydro Power and Water Resources Development and Management in the capacity of Class-I officer (Direct Recruit) of Government of India and in Private Power Sector. He joined the Border Roads Organisation in March 1994 as Assistant Executive Engineer and then the Central Water Commission, New Delhi, in 1995 where he worked in various capacities till late 2006, in the field of Project Planning, Investigation and Formulation of River Valley Projects and Hydro Electric Projects. Mr. Gagan Agarwal joined Athena Group in the year 2006 as a Vice President and has been associated mainly for Project Management and Development including Environment Clearance, Land Acquisition, Forest Clearance, Project planning, Formulation, Investigations, Design, Financial Analysis & Economic Evaluation. Presently, he is working as Chief Operating Officer in the Athena group and responsible for Project Management & Development of North-East Portfolio and O&M of existing Hydro Power Projects. Major milestones achieved by Mr. Gagan Agarwal include development of around 4000 MW Hydro Electric capacity of Athena Group in North Eastern States. He also headed Project of 1750 MW Demwe Lower HE Project, one of the largest Hydro projects in India. Mr. Agarwal has been involved in Project development and planning of Major Hydro Projects in India, Nepal and Bhutan like Pancheswar Multipurpose Project (5600 MW), Tala HEP (1000 MW), Teesta-III HEP (1200 MW) etc. Presently, Mr. Agarwal is a Managing Director in Sikkim Power Development Corporation Limited and also holding directorships in various companies mainly engaged in infrastructure sector. He is very dedicated and passionate about his roles in the organizations. At Greenew Urja, he is appointed as President and independently looking after Commercial aspects of the Company under leadership of the Board of Directors of GUPL.